

MISS YOU, BABE

By Alexis Turrentine

JOHN and ANNIE, boyfriend and girlfriend, are chatting via Skype or Zoom. There is literally nothing new to talk about because of the quarantine.

ANNIE

I miss you, babe!

JOHN

I miss you, too, babe! What did you do today?

ANNIE

Missed you.

JOHN

Aww, I missed you, too. Did you go for your walk?

ANNIE

Yeah, and I missed you the whole time. Wish you were here.

JOHN

I do, too. I had to work, but I thought about you every minute of the day and I missed you.

ANNIE

Aww, miss you, babe. I was taking my walk and that song, "Missing You" by John Waite popped up in my playlist. I mean, I was listening to my "Miss You, Babe" playlist, but what are the chances I'd be missing you and "Missing You" plays right then?

JOHN

Yeah, I was working on my coding project and trying to figure out which codes were missing and I was missing you the whole time.

ANNIE

Aw, babe! I miss you SOOO much.

JOHN

And ever since my coworker went missing, I've had to fill in for him and I've been so busy. I've been missing that extra time I usually spend missing you.

ANNIE
I know what you mean! Ever since I started watching "Lost," about the missing people from that missing plane, I've had just a little less time to miss you. And I miss that.

JOHN
I miss that, too, babe.

ANNIE
I might venture out to the grocery store, later, babe. I was going to make Mississippi Mud Pie but I realized I was missing a few ingredients.

JOHN
Aw, babe. I miss your baking.

ANNIE
I miss baking for you, babe.

JOHN
I wish I didn't have to miss you so much, babe.

ANNIE
What? I missed that. What did you say?

JOHN
I was just talking about how much I miss you, babe.

ANNIE
I miss you, too, babe.

JOHN
Well, I guess I'll get back to missing you, babe.

ANNIE
I'm gonna miss you, too, babe.

JOHN Babe?

ANNIE Yeah, babe?

JOHN
Babe, I already miss you.

ANNIE
I already miss you, too, babe. Oh, my friend Missy's calling...I'd better go. I keep missing her calls.

JOHN
Ok, babe. Miss you!!

John and Annie both try to end the call, but have trouble hitting the END button.

JOHN (cont'd)
I tried to press the end button,
but I missed it.

ANNIE
I missed it, too! I miss--

John successfully hits the END button and ends the call and the sketch.
